ARTS FEST 2015
SATURDAY APRIL 11TH

Camera Obscura Exhibit with Theta Phi Sound Installation
12:00 PM to 5:00 PM in RR228
Watch as the world outside a darkened room is projected, upside down and backwards, onto the walls - just like being inside a camera. Listen to Wayne Kirby’s “Theta Phi” installation - a meditation on the plane of existence between Heaven and Earth.

Festival on the Quad
12:00 PM to 5:00 PM on the Quad
In our major outdoor event, various music and dance performances take the main stage near Ramsey Library. Visiting Cherokee artists will be set up on the University Quadrangle to display and demonstrate traditional arts, while various student organizations will sell food and crafts. Don’t miss a special interactive adventure happening on Reynold’s Green. *In event of inclement weather, the Festival on the Quad will be relocated to Highsmith.

Cherokee Artisan Village
12:00 PM – 5:00 PM - Festival on the Quad
In partnership with the Museum of the Cherokee Indian, eight Cherokee artists visit campus to demonstrate, display, and sell traditional artwork and craft. Featured arts include basket-weaving, wood-carving, stone-carving, beadwork, pottery, story-telling, and more.

Bolokada Conde with Skinny Beats
12:00 PM On the Main Stage
Join Bolokada and Skinny Beats for a free interactive drum workshop on the Quad.

Belly Dance Club
1:00 PM On the Main Stage
The Belly Dance Club from UNC Asheville performs various styles of belly dance from classical Egyptian to Contemporary American Fusion.

Chamber Singers
1:00 PM in Lipinsky Lobby
UNCA’s top vocal ensemble, directed by Melodie Galloway.

Latin Jazz Ensemble
2:00 PM On the Main Stage
Traditional and modern music of Cuba, Brazil, and the Caribbean directed by Matthew Richmond.
Bluegrass Ensemble
2:45 PM On the Main Stage
Students perform traditional Appalachian music under the direction of Toby King.

Alliance Crossroads
3:00 PM to 8:00 PM on Reynold’s Green
Have you ever wondered what it would be like to step out of the audience and into the adventure? Come find out! Interactive improvisational theatre meets swashbuckling adventure in an immersive group experience that will delight the whole family.

Herbie Hancock Ensemble
3:30 PM On the Main Stage
Students perform the electric music of legendary jazz pianist and composer Herbie Hancock. The group will play tunes from Head Hunters, Thrust, Manchild and more, under the direction of Brian Felix.

Faculty Jazz Band
4:15 PM On the Main Stage
Original music by UNC Asheville faculty.

UNC Asheville Dance Concert
7:30 PM to 9:00 PM in Lipinsky Auditorium
Looking Forward, Looking Back celebrates the UNC Asheville Dance Program’s 17 years of production and performance. The program will showcase student and faculty work in contemporary, jazz styles, dances from Ivory Coast, Movement Theatre, and a premiere by guest choreographer, Susan Collard. The AiM dancers whose work debuted in the fall concert, return with new work. Departing dance program Director, Connie Schrader also returns to the stage. Please join the 75 dancers in an evening of family-friendly dance, drumming and delight! A reception with live music follows the program in the Lipinsky Lobby. Tickets are $5 at the door.

Altered Books Exhibit
Ongoing Exhibit in Library Lobby

International Photo Contest Exhibit
Ongoing Exhibit in Blower’s Gallery at Ramsey Library